MEDIA ALERT
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 12, 2019

RTA - Limited Service Update #3

What: Weather permitting, RTA service will continue as listed below, throughout the evening. We are asking riders to please be flexible with their travel plans, in case the RTA suspends service due to weather.

- All Bus service is operating as normal.
- All streetcar service lines have been replaced with bus service, in anticipation of the impending weather event.
- All ferry vessels have been secured for safety and the Algiers Point/Canal Street ferry service is being replaced with bus service.
- The Chalmette Ferry is closed.
- Paratransit service is being provided as medically necessary.
- All essential employees are on standby.
- Depending on the weather's progression, service cuts will begin prior to landfall, as needed.

When: Friday, July 12th · 7:10 AM

Why: The RTA is committed to providing safe and reliable transportation to the City of New Orleans. The Authority is working diligently to get people safely to where they need to go.

Weather-permitting, the service above will continue.

The RTA will continue to monitor the latest weather reports and update the public via the media, social media, and the RTA's GoMobile app on its operations.
